

I will discuss the proof of pointwise almost everywhere convergence of certain non-conventional (in the sense of Furstenberg and Weiss) bilinear polynomial ergodic averages as well as certain linear nilpotent polynomial averages. I will also explain how these results contribute to the conjecture of Furstenberg-Bergelson-Leibman.