Math 165
Section 0201
Fall 2004
MWF 10:30-11:20, MATH 175

Instructor:  David Goldberg
Office:  MATH 640
Phone:  49-41919
Office hours:  M,W, TH 2:30-3:30
e-mail: goldberg@math.purdue.edu

NOTE: e-mail is an excellent way to make an appointment, but not a good way to communicate information pertaining to specifics of the class, e.g. homework problems. Thus, e-mails which ask for solutions or hints on homework will be ignored. Please come to my office hour, or make an appointment to get these questions addressed.

Personal homepage:  www.math.purdue.edu/~goldberg
Course homepage:  www.math.purdue.edu/courses/ma165

Recitations:  There are recitation sections Thursday. Be sure to attend the section to which you are assigned.

Course Outline:  This course covers Chapters 1-5, Section 9.4, and 10.6, with sections omitted as noted in the course wide assignments sheet. (Available at the course web page). This serves as a first introduction to Calculus. We expect you to have facility with the concepts of the course as well as ability to apply them. Complete solutions (grammar, equal assigns etc.) are expected of you.

Exams:  There will be three midterm exams, and a two hour final exam. The midterm exams will be given as evening exams on; Sept. 21, Oct. 18, and Nov. 15. There will be a two hour final during the exam week. NO calculators are allowed for quizzes or Exams.

Homework and quizzes Quizzes:  Homework will be collected and passed back during each lecture. The homework assignments are detailed in the assignment sheet that is passed out separately. The mechanics of this will be explained in lecture. There will be a quiz almost every week in recitation. Each quiz will be scored on a scale 0-10. You will also be expected to turn in a collection of review problems in recitation. Failure to do so will result in a 2 point deduction from that week’s quiz.

Other resources: There are open TA office hours in MATH 205, aschedule of which will be provided shortly. There is plenty of assistance to be had, if you just ask.