The diagram illustrates a seating chart for a 26x26 grid, likely representing a theater or arena. The grid is divided into several colored regions, each associated with a specific name or group of names. The red region on the left includes names like Weston Buchanan, Keith Schwingendorf, Raymond Polak, and Pavel Coupek. The blue region on the right includes names like Maria Berardi, Tim Delworth, and Giovanni Granados. The yellow region in the center includes names like Lara Du, Sam O'Connor, and Bill Mercier. The grid also includes a 'Control Room' label and various numerical values in the cells, which may represent seating numbers or other identifiers. The grid is organized into rows labeled A through Z and columns labeled 1 through 26.
