Keep in mind that these are approximations only, but should give you an idea of how you are doing in the course. Remember that the online homework plus daily scores is the equivalent of an exam. For online HW 90% or above is about an A, 80-89% is about a B, 65-79% is about a C, and 55-64% is about a D. Keep track of your daily scores; are they usually above average, below average, or average.
