

Ground Rules for MA 26200, Fall 2013

Midterm Examinations: There will be two one hour midterm exams. The time and place will be announced later.

Final Examination: There will be a two-hour, comprehensive final during exam week. The time and place will be announced later.

Grades: Course grades will be determined from your total score, whose components have the following maximum values:

Recitation (Homework and Quizzes)	200
Two midterms at 100 each	200
Final Exam	200
Total	600

Course Webpage: <http://www.math.purdue.edu/MA26200/>

Calculators: Calculators will not be allowed on exams or quizzes. It is important that you learn to do simple manipulations by hand.

Comments: (1) Class attendance is expected. Reading the sections in the textbook ahead of time is recommended. (2) Copying, or in any way giving or receiving help, on quizzes and exams is not allowed. The full Purdue University policy on Academic Integrity should be followed. It is available at: <http://www.purdue.edu/odos/osrr/academicintegritybrochure.php>

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: If you have been certified by the Disability Resource Center (DRC) as eligible for academic adjustments on exams or quizzes, see <http://www.math.purdue.edu/ada> for exam and quiz procedures for your mathematics course, or go to MATH 242 for paper copies.

In the event that you are waiting to be certified by the Disability Resource Center we encourage you to review our procedures prior to being certified.

For all in-class accommodations, please see your instructor outside class hours, before or after class or during office hours, to share your Accommodation Memorandum for the current semester and discuss your accommodations as soon as possible.

Important Dates:

Last day for a student to drop a course without it being recorded: September, 2

Last day for a student to drop a course without a grade: September, 16

Last day for a student to drop a course with a passing or failing grade: October, 23

In case of emergency: In the event of a major campus emergency, course requirements, deadlines and grading percentages are subject to changes that may be necessitated by a revised semester calendar or other circumstances. Here are ways to get information about changes in this course: by visiting the course web page indicated above or by calling or e-mailing your instructor, see <http://www.math.purdue.edu/people/faculty/> for contact information.
