Calculators: The TI-30Xa scientific calculator is the ONLY calculator allowed on exams and quizzes. You are encouraged to use this calculator when completing homework.

All homework assignments will be completed online using the computerized homework system WebAssign. It is highly recommended that you use Mozilla Firefox when using WebAssign. You must log in to WebAssign through BlackBoard. The problems listed below are all from the textbook. You are not required to submit these problems on paper. Similar problems will make up the WebAssign homework assignment. You can complete these for extra practice. There are a list of WebAssign tricks and hints located on the course webpage and in Blackboard under Course Documents.
