

Span Plan is dedicated to the belief that education and career development are lifelong endeavors. This program provides services for nontraditional undergraduate and graduate students that guide and support them as they pursue their education at Purdue University.

You are an adult nontraditional student if you meet one or more of these criteria:

- Had at least a two year break from school
- Married or in a domestic partnership
- A parent
- A veteran
- A graduate or professional student

Services

The Span Plan Lunchtime Learning Program

Join us for monthly presentations on topics from how to use the Purdue Libraries to time management to resume and career development. A complimentary lunch is provided at each Lunchtime Learning Program. You will also have time to socialize and network with fellow nontraditional students before and after the program.

Individual Attention

Span Plan staff can assist you via appointment, email, walk-in or on the phone as often as needed with any academic, career, or personal concern. We can:

1. Support your adjustment to the higher education environment.
2. Assist you in making your academic career successful.
3. Refer you to free supportive campus resources.
4. Respect your unique needs and concerns.
5. Provide information about grants and scholarships.

Thank you so much! You were incredibly patient and helpful, and both listened to and knew my perspective and gave great detailed answers and even more, direction to where to go next. ~ Kerry Logan

Grants & Scholarships

Span Plan administers need-based grants every semester and merit-based scholarships every spring for adult nontraditional students. The criteria vary; visit the Span Plan website to learn more about selection criteria, deadlines, and the application processes.

Tutoring Program

Span Plan offers FREE tutoring to adult nontraditional undergraduate students at Purdue. In most cases, Span Plan can provide a tutor for 100-200-level foreign language, math, and science classes. Apply online at <https://www2.itap.purdue.edu/SSTA/tutoring/welcome.cfm>.

After a 24 year absence from Purdue University, it was great to have the Span Plan tutoring program to help me get back in the swing of things! Every returning student should make an appointment at the Span Plan office and utilize the many resources they offer. ~ Adrian Zakula
