

Ground Rules for MA 30300 Summer 2015

Homework: All homework assignments are online (www.webassign.net/purdue/login.html). No late homework are accepted. The lowest three homework scores will be dropped at the end of the term. Homework is normally due at 11 pm of the next class day (except homework 1, which is due on Wednesday 6/17).

Quizzes: Please see the course calendar for the quiz schedule. Quiz questions will cover material on recently completed homework assignments. Early or late quizzes will not be scheduled. Quiz will typically be at the end of the class, but you must be present for the whole period to take the quiz. The lowest quiz score will be dropped at the end of the term.

Midterm Examinations: There will be two one-hour midterm exams held during class time.

Final Examination: There will be a two-hour comprehensive final exam during summer exam period, August 5 –August 7. The time and place will be announced later.

Grades: Course grades will be determined from your total score which will be computed as follows:

Homework	100 pt
Quizzes	100 pt
Two midterms@150each	300 pt
Final Exam	200 pt
Total	700 pts

Course webpage: <http://www.math.purdue.edu/ma303>

Calculators: Calculators will not be allowed on exams or quizzes.

Academic Adjustments: During the summer session accommodations for your exams are managed between the instructor, student and DRC Testing Center. Students should see instructors outside class hours—before or after class or during office hours—to deliver their Accommodation Memorandums and discuss their accommodations

Diversity Welcome Purdue University is committed to maintaining a community which recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the University seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The University believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life.

Academic Honesty Purdue prohibits academic dishonesty. According to University policy cheating, plagiarism, lying, and deceit in any of their diverse forms (such as the use of substitutes for taking examinations, the use of illegal cribs, plagiarism, and copying during examinations) is dishonest and must not be tolerated. Moreover, knowingly to aid, abet, directly or indirectly, other parties in committing dishonest acts is in itself dishonest. If found guilty of academic dishonesty, possible penalties include a failing grade, a warning, probation, probated suspension, suspension, or expulsion. For more details about the Purdue Policy on academic dishonesty see: <http://www.purdue.edu/odos/osrr/academicintegritybrochure.php>

Campus Emergency Information In the event of a major campus emergency, course requirements, deadlines and grading percentages are subject to changes that may be necessitated by a revised semester calendar or other circumstances beyond the instructor's control.

Online Course Evaluations You will be provided an opportunity to evaluate this course and your instructors. You will receive an official email from evaluation administrators with a link to the online evaluation site. Your feedback is vital to improving education at Purdue. We strongly urge you to participate in the evaluation system.
