

Course Webpage: <http://www.math.purdue.edu/MA262>

Homework: There are 36 online homework assignments. Online homework is accessed through Brightspace/MyLabMath. Please see the Course Calendar for due dates. The three lowest scores will be dropped.

Midterm Examinations: There will be two online midterm exams (on June 30 and July 21). More information will be available from the instructor prior to each exam.

Final Examination: There will be a two-hour comprehensive online final exam at the end of the summer session.

Grades: Your course grade is based on a total of 100 points distributed as follows.

Online Homework	25%
2 Midterm exams	40%
Final Exam	35%

Important Comments: You are expected to follow the Course Calendar as if you are physically attending the class. Summer pace is fast. Do NOT fall behind! Reading the sections in the textbook ahead of time is strongly recommended. Check the course webpage often.

Calculators: Calculators will not be allowed on exams or quizzes.

Academic Adjustments for Students with Disabilities:

During the summer session accommodations for your exams are managed between the instructor and the student. Students should contact instructors to discuss their accommodations.

Campus Emergency Notice: In the event of a major campus emergency, course requirements, deadlines and grading percentages are subject to changes that may be necessitated by a revised semester calendar or other circumstances. Please refer to the course web page <http://www.math.purdue.edu/MA262> to get the information about changes in this course.

Academic Integrity: Purdue prohibits academic dishonesty. According to University policy cheating, plagiarism, lying, and deceit in any of their diverse forms (such as the use of substitutes for taking examinations, the use of illegal cribs, plagiarism, and copying during examinations) is dishonest and must not be tolerated. Moreover, knowingly to aid, abet, directly or indirectly, other parties in committing dishonest acts is in itself dishonest. If found guilty of academic dishonesty, possible penalties include a failing grade, a warning, probation, probated suspension, suspension, or expulsion. For more details about the Purdue Policy on academic dishonesty see: <http://www.purdue.edu/odos/osrr/academicintegritybrochure.php>

Diversity Welcome: Purdue University is committed to maintaining a community which recognizes and values the inherent worth and dignity of every person; fosters tolerance, sensitivity, understanding, and mutual respect among its members; and encourages each individual to strive to reach his or her own potential. In pursuit of its goal of academic excellence, the University seeks to develop and nurture diversity. The University believes that diversity among its many members strengthens the institution, stimulates creativity, promotes the exchange of ideas, and enriches campus life.

Counseling: Purdue University is committed to advancing the mental health and wellbeing of its students. If you or someone you know is feeling overwhelmed, depressed, and/or in need of support, services are available. For help, such individuals should contact Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at (765)494-6995 and <http://www.purdue.edu/caps/> during and after hours, on weekends and holidays, or by going to the CAPS office of the second floor of the Purdue University Student Health Center (PUSH) during business hours.
