

What is SI?

- SI sessions are peer-led group study sessions, where your SI leader will guide you through activities, and you will collaborate with other students to solve problems and find solutions.
- When a student is able to explain information to their peers, they are creating an even stronger grasp on the information, which is why 1 hour of SI is equal to 2 hours to individual studying.

Below are the instructions on accessing SI sessions online or in-person.

How to access online SI sessions?

1. Go to <https://purdue.brightspace.com/d2l/home/6824> and access with your boiler key. 2. Click on Spring 2021 Supplemental Instruction

3. Click on content

The screenshot shows a Brightspace course page. At the top, there is a 'My Courses' dropdown menu. Below it, there are tabs for 'All', 'WL Fall 2020', and 'WL Spring 2021'. A red box highlights the 'My Courses' dropdown menu, the 'Content' link in the navigation bar, and the 'Spring 2021 Supplemental Instruction' course card. The course card shows details for 'Spring 2021 Supplemental Instruction' (SPRING_2021_SI) and 'Spring 2021 Supplemental Instruction' (WL Spring 2021). Below the course cards, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Course Home', 'Content', 'Classlist', 'Grades', 'Class Progress', 'Course Tools', and 'Help'. A banner below the navigation bar reads 'SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION and Spring 2021 Supplemental Instruction'. At the bottom, there is an 'Announcements' section with the text 'Welcome to the Spring 2021 SI Brightspace Course!'.
