

How to complete each writing assignment?

INSTRUCTIONS:

Begin by filling out the header on each page with the number of the writing assignment, the date it is due, and your name.

Page 1:

1. In the first blank line, write the name of the topic you are completing this writing assignment about.
2. In the second blank line, write the same thing you did in the first blank line.
3. In the lines, starting with (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5), list 5 unique items that you find important about the topic just covered.

Note: Formulas and acronyms are valid things to list; however, copying problems from homework assignments, notes, or exams are not valid answers. Also, repeating items will result in a deduction of 1 pt. Empty lines will also result in a deduction of 1 pt for each empty line.

4. In the blank line following the list, write the name of the topic you are completing this assignment about again.
5. In the final blank line of page 1, write down what you thought was the most important thing to take away about the topic. (You may repeat one of the items you listed above in (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5).)

Page 2:

1. Start by writing the name of the topic in the center oval.
2. Fill in each of the boxes to the best of your ability.

Note: Each box is being filled in with the topic in mind. Empty box will result in a deduction of 1 pt.
