Accommodations due to disability: If you have a documented disability that requires academic accommodations, please see me as soon as possible during scheduled office hours. In order to receive accommodations in this course, you must provide me with a Letter of Accommodation from the Disability Resource Center (Room 2, Alumni Gym, 257-2754, jkarnes@email.uky.edu) for coordination of campus disability services available to students with disabilities.

Grading: Your final grade will be determined as follows:

Online Homework	60 points
Quizzes	20 points
Attendance	20 points
Midterm exam	100 points (each)
Final Exam	100 points

A standard grading scale will be used (90-100% for A, 80-89% for B, 70-79% for C, 60-69% for D, and below 60% for E).

Calculators: You are allowed to use computational aids such as calculators on homework assignments and during exams. The detail is as same as that stated in the common course syllabus.

Attendance: There are 20 points for attendance. I will take attendance beginning Wednesday, Feb. 22. Your attendance score is based on the percentage of lectures you attend. You will receive full credit (20 points, see above) if you have at most 3 unexcused absences.

Academic integrity: Violations of academic integrity will be taken seriously and dealt with according to university regulations. Instances of cheating on exams and quizzes include (but are not limited to) copying from or communicating with another student, bringing any kind of notes into the exam unless expressly permitted, and using any type of electronic aid. You are encouraged to work together on homework, but you are required to write up and submit your own solutions to all assignments. Students caught cheating will be prosecuted according to university guidelines.

Classroom Decorum: Students are expected to be attentive and courteous during class. During class, please put away newspapers, turn off cell phones, and refrain from using laptops or other electronic devices except for note-taking purposes.
